

He's having the adventure of someone else's life!

Check it out! Who's that tuxedoed dude in the awesome cherry-red machine? (Three guesses and the first two don't count.) Make way, Bill and Ted: here comes Richard Grieco in his very own excellent adventure.

Grieco (Mobsters, 21 Jump Street, Booker) plays 'teen agent' Michael Corben, a bodaciously funny spy spoof directed by William Dear (Harry and the Hendersons) and co-starring The Year of Living Dangerously Oscar® winner Linda Hunt, Roger Rees (Cheers) and Gabrielle Anwar (Wild Hearts Can't Be Broken).

It's an adventure that's stylin' from the start. Needing a class credit for graduation, Michael goes to Europe with the French Club for what he hopes will be a breezin' babe safari. Instead, he's mistaken for a top superspy, loaded up with lots of righteous espionage gear and given a totally cool car. He's having the time of someone else's life. Now all he has to do is save Europe and graduate from high school. No problem.

'If Looks Could Kill' is a February Release from Warner Bros. Video
